The Greedy Lion

It is a hot sunny day, and a lion is feeling very hungry. He comes out of his den and searches here and there. He can find only a small hare. He catches the hare with some hesitation. “This hare can’t fill my stomach” thinks the lion.

As the lion is about to kill the hare, a deer runs that way. The lion becomes greedy. He thinks; “Instead of eating this small hare, let me eat the big deer.” He lets the hare go and goes behind the deer. But the deer has vanished into the forest. The lion now feels sorry for letting the hare off.

Moral of the story:

A bird in hand is worth two in the bush.
